School Price List of services 2014 - 15

Yearly Membership Fee (April—March) £15

You'll receive a termly WFDA newsletter as well as joining the British Dyslexia Association and receive their magazine 3 times a year

Block Dyslexia Screening £60 per pupil

Max. 4 pupils per day booking, each screening lasts about 1 1/2 hours and provides an indication if the pupil has dyslexia and on what level.

Our screening service uses the LUCID Rapid Screening computer programme, which tests working memory, phonological processing and visual-verbal integration memory (5–7 years) or phonic decoding skills (8–15 years), looking at the areas of difficulty that are most common to dyslexic children. Also used is LASS and an analysis of handwriting. The Rapid Screening assessment together with a consultation with the specialist trained assessor may also include testing for visual difficulties using coloured overlays if this seems appropriate.

1:1 in-school support £60 per lesson attended

Specialist dyslexia trained tutor to work with a dyslexic child in a specific lesson.

In-school training support* £120 for half day

For teachers or learning support assistants in Key Stage 2 Literacy

School Assessment Support £375

Discounted priced of £225 for LBWF schools***

2 hour session with 1 hour feedback session 6 weeks later run by a specialist trained dyslexia assessor. Aimed at Teachers, SENCO's, HLTA's and Senior TA's. The course shows how to develop a 'snapshot' of pupils who possibly have dyslexia. Ways to identify a pattern of their strengths and weakness to build a plan of action using our Dyslexia Handbook

*NB: Funding from the London Borough of Waltham Forest (LBWF) is held by WFDA and is available for WF schools only to offset some of the cost for in-school training and school assessment support. Please contact us to discuss this further.

School INSET Dyslexia Awareness Training Course £250

2 hour session run by a specialist trained dyslexia teacher. Aimed at staff and volunteers working in schools including Head teachers, SENCO's, teachers, teaching assistants and learning support staff. The course provides a better understanding of dyslexia, how it can be identified and then supported by strategies and techniques to use with the pupils.

Touch typing support classes (per session) £60

45 minute session for pupils aged between 7 - 12 (up to 10 pupils). School to provide computers/software, WFDA recommends Typequick. Pupils will have targets to reach for each level of the programme. Flexibility on session time.

NB For schools out of the LBWF travel costs could be incurred.

Cancellation that is less than 24 hours notice will incur a full charge
