Building Bright Futures

An evening with Margaret Rooke

Author of books to inspire and encourage children and teens with dyslexia, written in the words of the young people themselves.

Join us for a special and inspiring talk about how young people with dyslexia can build bright futures for themselves.

Drawing on feedback from her latest book, Life After School: Dyslexic and Taking on the World.

Margaret will explore how young people can recognise their strengths, embrace their individuality and seize the opportunities that lie ahead.

Margaret's books celebrate the real-life experiences, achievements and hopes of children and young people with dyslexia - offering honest, uplifting insights into what it means to grow up with dyslexia.

Whether you're a parent, young person, teacher or simply someone passionate about supporting those with dyslexia, this is an evening not to be missed!

Come along, be inspired!
